My Extra Mile

Dear God,

Here's the honest truth. Sometimes, when I am asked to serve others, I feel _____

But I know that you have something different in mind for me. You are a loving God, and you are pleased with me when I serve others in secret and with good motives. Please help me to feel your pleasure when I serve others. Please change me so that _____

I love you and want to become more like you, God.

Amen.
